Pastor Joe Natwick of Bethel Lutheran Church the host church for the concert served as the Master of Ceremonies for the concert and welcomed everyone to a spiritual evening to benefit the Weld Food Bank and a offered a heartfelt thank you from the choir to the Bethel congregation for your incredible support t of this vital cause. Choir members, (pictured L-R below), Becky Schneider, Robyn Upton, Chris Arbegast, Elaine Mainwaring, Barb Hetzel, Kathy Rickart, and Kristi Baker) belong to different churches, but believe in the one true God.

Elaine Mainwaring, founder of the choir began the evening of praise and worship signing the song, "Here We Are," is a powerful song written by Dallas Holm during a pivotal time in his life when he grappled with his faith. It was a journey that ultimately transformed him.

"Amazing Grace/My Chains Are Gone." Originally penned by John Newton as an outpouring of praise and gratitude for deliverance from his past, this adaptation by Chris Tomlin reminds us that even today, our struggles do not have to bind us. Chains can be broken.

Here we are in His PRESENCE!

Amazing grace is amazing LOVE.

"Healing Rain," signed simultaneously in two parts. This powerful piece culminates in a solo reflecting a sinner's struggle between paths, ultimately triumphing by choosing righteousness.

With WORSHIP and His STRENGTH one can triumph over sin FOREVER!

"Praise You In This Storm," signed by Becky Schneider, reminds us that even in the deepest grief, God holds us in His arms and never lets go. On May 27, 2013, Becky's son, Justin, tragically died in a car accident. That spring day began an unending winter in Becky's life, filled with depression, anger, and questions of "Why, God? How can this be Your plan?" This storm threatened to consume her and her entire family. "Where are you, Lord? I can't see you, Lord." Becky joined this choir a decade later, in 2023, and through music and community, she finally began the healing process. She discovered she could once again praise the Lord, knowing He was there before, after, and surrounds her still.

Help comes from my God ABOVE, maker of heaven and earth.

"How Great Thou Art," is a song that is truly all about the praise of God. This was the signature song of the Billy Graham crusade at Madison Square Garden in 1957, sung over 100 times, a testament to its enduring power.

*How
thou Art!

There is joyful praise for salvation expressed in the song "I Got Saved."

I've got Jesus INSIDE MY HEART, what more could I want?

"He," a popular song from the 1960s, was signed by Kathy Rickart. It's a simple yet profound tribute to Him—our God, His power, His love, His forgiveness, and His grace.

*He will always FORGIVE.

"It Is Well With My Soul," a song that powerfully reminds us that God is the anchor of our soul. It's about placing our trust in Him and finding peace in the knowledge that He has a plan, even when it feels as though we've lost everything important.

There is SATISFACTION and peace knowing He has a plan.

"Jesus Messiah," signed by Kristi Baker, reminds us that there is One who is above all things, One we can turn to at any moment for comfort and guidance.

Blessed REDEEMER, Emanuel. The rescue for sinners, the ransom from Heaven, Jesus Messiah, Lord of All!

The final song signed by the choir - "The Lord's Prayer."

*For Thine is the Kingdom, and the Power and the Glory,
Forever!
AMEN*
